

New!

New!

New!

Look what's new!

Early Child Development and the Brain

Franklin County Children's Task Force is now offering trainings for professionals in the area of prenatal and child development. Topics will include: Prenatal Development, Neurobehavioral Observation, Brain Development, Identifying & Coping with Stress in Children, Sensory Processing, Maternal Drug Use and Infant Development, and Language Development and the Brain. Trainings can be tailored to meet the needs of your agency or group. For more information or to schedule training please call Franklin County Children's Task Force @ 778-6960